

Founded in 1972, Wilkinson O'Grady manages $1.9 billion for individuals, families, endowments, foundations, and other institutions. The firm's track record is built on an investment philosophy and process that combines in-depth research and securities selection with active asset allocation and risk management. We are global investors who build client portfolios around enduring investment themes – the economic and social forces that drive long-term change. We invest in the marketable securities of companies with superior financial characteristics, leading management teams, and large market opportunities.
